PEDESTAL AGAINST A RUSSIAN EXECUTION.

A mass meeting to ask for Clemency for the Russian executioners was held last evening at Cooper Union to protest against the execution of Sophie Gunzberg, the young Russian girl who is condemned to death in Russia on suspicion of being a nihilist. Resolutions were adopted entrusting the Russian Government to modify the sentence.

THE CO-OPERATIVE GLASS FACTORY.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 3.—The American Window Glass Workers' Association, otherwise known as Assembly 309, Knights Labor, now propose to build a glass factory in this city. The factory will be run as a co-operative concern, but the profits will go into the treasury of the organization. The object in establishing the factory is to ascertain exactly how much profit there is in the business, that the men may act intelligently in formulating their wages scale.

TO MATCH KILPATRICK AND GOSSETT.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The World this morning says the California Athletic Club, at a meeting last night, decided to offer a purse of $5,000 for a glove contest between Kilpatrick and Gossett. The club is willing to pay for that amount, and Phil Dwyer, who had been offered a purse of $5,000 if he would furnish a stake of $5,000 if the match was successful, to him.

APPROVES THE STRINGENCY OF THE TIME.

In these times of the apparent insecurity of many securities, the insured to turn to life insurance as the best of all safe investments. Here are a few of the advantages:

You pay 25 small installments.
You receive from 1 to 5 per cent. compound interest.
You secure protection.

Your heirs receive the amount of your policy should you die, and you receive nearly as much again as you pay in should you live until it comes.

You also receive this money when you may want it most—in your declining years.
Why hesitate about making such a safe investment? You cannot do better with your money. Have your life insured.

GRANGER-LIKE ROBBERY.

Held Up a Cashier With Eighteen Hundred Men Near By.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—John N. Asier, cashier of the Allerton Packing Company, was held up yesterday afternoon in his office in the packing house by two unknown men of Granger like appearance, and robbed of $3,200 in cash. It was pay day at Allerton's and a few moments after $3,000 had been brought from the bank to the cashier the two strangers entered the office. In an instant the cashier was looking down the muzzle of a revolver. He was commanded to empty the money into a canvas bag which was held out alongside the revolver.

Eighteen hundred men were working in the packing house close by at the time of the robbery. After the robbers had secured the money they backed out of the office and thrust a heavy trunk through the door of the office, and the cashier was left alone with the money. The trunk was closed and the robbers fled.

CALLING ON THE PRESIDENT.

The President's clemency, which has been here for the past week, left this morning for New York. The Brazilian visitors and all expressed themselves as highly pleased with the courtesies they have received at the hands of the Government officials here.

THE INDIAN SITUATION.

But little news bearing on the Indian question is to be obtained at the War Department to day. There were sent out one dispatch received this morning, and that was from the Rosebud Agency, and reported everything there quiet. The absence of dispatches from Pine Ridge and Standing Rock agencies is regarded as an evidence that the situation is no worse and probably better than it was. Orders were issued from the Department to day, directing that the First, Fifth and Seventh regiments of Infantry proceed at once to the neighborhood of the Rosebud Agency, the First and Seventh regiments will proceed first to Omaha, Neb., and there await further orders.
